

Mrs. Pinkham has relieved thousands of women from just this kind of trouble, and now retains their grateful letters in her library as proof of the great assistance she has rendered them. This same assistance awaits every sick woman in the land.

"I OATH ME, FENKHAM—I feel it my duty to write and tell you of the benefit I have received from your wonderful remedies. Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I was a misery to myself and every one around me. I suffered terrible pain in my back, head, and right side, was very nervous and irritable, and could not sleep at all. Sometimes in two weeks, then again not for three or four months. I was so tired and weak, could not sleep nights, sharp pains would start through my back and down my legs."
"My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had no faith in it, but to please her I did so. The first bottle helped me so much I could continue its use. I am now well and well pleased. None but those who have tried it can tell."
WINIFRED ALLENDSIDE, Farmington, Ill.

we are constantly publishing, we have dropped with the National City Bank, of New York, $100,000, which will be paid to any person who can show that the above testimonial is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission.—LYDIA E. FERRISMAN MARRIOTT CO.

For further particulars apply to
C. F. WARREN,
Gen'l Agent, A. T. S. F.,
411 Dooly Block, Salt Lake City

Recent outbreaks of plague are reported at Brisbane and Perth, Australia.

"Your letter--I suppose I may speak of it--was very kind," her voice broke ered the proposals, he asked: "Who then, is this M. Tennyson?"

Phew out on strike at a critical stage of a chess game. At that time he was

Charity covers a multitude of sins—
and so does success.

yon league team in 1885 and the following year was with Allentown, Detroit and the Metropolitans. In 1888 and 1889 he was with Lehighville. In 1890 he joined the Brooklyn Players' league team, and here began a bril-

The Boston American league team has the tallest player in the business. John M. McLean, who has been signed as catcher, stands 6 feet 5 inches.

The loss of Messrs. McGraw, Robinson, Criger, Young, Schurz-Kongst and Hemphill, makes a huge hole in the Frank Dwyer, for several years one of Cincinnati's best pitchers, will be found on the staff of the National league umpires this season. He handled the indicator in the American league last season and won great praise for his work. Dwyer is 23 years of age and his home is in Geneva, N. Y. He first showed his ability as a ball player while a member of the Hobart College nine and later joined

Phew out on strike at a critical stage of a chess game. At that time he was

Charity covers a multitude of sins—
and so does success.